Toscana Tenuta Le Calcinaie
Teodoro 2016

Expressive aromas of plum, blackberry and kirsch are augmented by wild herbs and savory underbrush in this intense, delineated red. Iron, tobacco and tea notes add even more layers. Solidly built and vibrant. Terrific length. One for the long haul. Sangiovese, Merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon. Best from 2023 through 2045.

Region	Tuscany	92
Vintage	2016

Lots of blackcurrant, raspberry and cherry character. It's very bright and energetic with fine tannins and very pretty fruit. Fine, crafted tannins and a pretty finish. Blend of sangiovese, merlot and cabernet sauvignon. From organically grown grapes. Drinkable now, but another year or two would be right for this. Try after 2021.

Le Calcinaie 2015 Teodoro

Toscana Igt, Tuscany

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window: 2018 - 2025

The 2015 Teodoro is a blend of Sangiovese with Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot. Bold, rich and explosive in the glass, the 2015 delivers serious fruit intensity and structure. The international varieties are not especially evident in the flavor profile, but are felt more in the wine's depth and textural richness.

TEODORO

1999 - 1998

Undoubtedly the finest red wine I have tasted from Tuscany's San Gimignano region, the superconcentrated 1998 Teodoro (a blend of barrique-aged Cabernet Sauvignon, Sangiovese, and Merlot) boasts a deep, thick, black/purple color, chewy, full-bodied, opulently-textured flavors, admirable purity, and a long, velvety, seamless finish. Drink this loaded 1998 over the next 7-8 years to take advantage of its exuberant youth.

The 1999 Teodoro is a barrique-aged blend of Sangiovese and Merlot. This dense, chewy, internationally-styled 1999 reveals plenty of espresso, toast, chocolate, and black cherry fruit aromas as well as flavors. Drink it over the next 10-12 years.
